

ETD@CUA Open Access Revocation Statement

CUA ID: _____

Name: _____
Last, First

Graduation
Date: _____

Title of Dissertation:

As the copyright owner of the academic work listed above, I previously granted The Catholic University of America (“Institution”), my academic department (“Department”), and Digital Scholarship at CUA (“Repository”), the non-exclusive right to copy, display, perform, distribute and publish the content I submitted to this repository ("Work") in any format in perpetuity as part of an Institution, Department, or Repository communication or distribution effort.

I hereby revoke those rights previously granted and place an embargo on the Institution, Department, and/or Repository offering open access to the Work through the Internet, including search engine indexing, and the free download of said Work through any means.

All non-exclusive rights to copy, display, perform, distribute and publish the Work for the benefit of those registered members of the Institution, Department, or Repository with valid, updated library privileges, including those at Washington Research Library Consortium partner institutions, are unaffected by this revocation.

I understand that a bibliographic citation to the Work will also remain visible in perpetuity, even after this Work has been removed from the Repository.

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Staff Use Only	Name	Date
Statement Received
System Access Revoked
Statement Filed		